

MAINE IN THE FIELD.

The Whigs of Cumberland county, Maine, held a Mass Meeting at Portland on the 9th inst., which, for numbers and enthusiasm, far exceeded anything of the kind ever held in that section of the country. The Whig ladies had prepared a splendid Prize Banner to be presented to the Whigs of such town as should have proportionally the largest delegation in attendance. The sterling Whigs of Brunswick bore off the prize, having a delegation of over four hundred strong. Accompanying the Brunswick delegation was a handsome corps of Volunteer Light Infantry, under the command of Capt. John A. Cleveland, and a military band from that town.

A procession was formed and marched to the spot prepared for its reception. Each delegation had appropriate flags and banners, and the houses in the streets through which the procession moved were handsomely decorated, and the windows filled with ladies, who greeted the column by their smiles and the waving of their handkerchiefs, which were responded to by the hearty cheers of the Whigs in procession.

When they reached the ground, the Mass Convention was organized by appointing the Hon. William Pitt Fessenden President, with a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. After the ceremony of presenting the Prize Banner to the Brunswick delegation, Freeman H. Morse, Esq., addressed the Convention in an able and effective manner, who was followed by the distinguished U. S. Senator from that State, Mr. Evans, of whose speech the Portland Advertiser speaks as follows:

"Mr. Evans, our distinguished Senator, followed, greeted also by the emphatic cheers of the crowd. He spoke something more than two hours, commanding the profound attention of the large audience. The speech was eminently worthy of the logical mind of Mr. Evans, and yet, close and solid as was its reasoning, there was an abundance of the clearest illustration, and the most persuasive appeals to the judgment and consciences of the hearers. In fact, it was regarded as one of the happiest combinations of statesmanlike argument and popular appeal that has ever been enjoyed in this quarter, and well repaid, in itself, the exertions which all had made to accomplish the objects of the Convention."

Mr. Evans was followed by Col. Kenney and the Hon. Edward Kent, in admirable speeches, after which the Convention adjourned in high hopes and spirits. The Advertiser closes the account of the meeting in the following cheering language:

"Thus worthily closes the pleasures of the day. It was a day to be remembered in Cumberland county, and will form an epoch in our Whig history. It constantly suggested abundant and vivid recollections of our glorious triumph in '40, and every hour, as it passed, gave more and more shining promise of the speedy rising of that true 'Star in the East,' which, once more risen upon old Cumberland, we are persuaded will never again be dimmed by the gloomy clouds of Locofocoism."

THE SOUTHWEST FOREVER!—There was a gathering of the Whigs of thinly peopled, ragged Allegany on Monday, at Angelica, where eight thousand of the hardy yeomanry of that county and vicinity assembled. Hon. Laurens Hull presided. Millard Fillmore, John A. Collier, and A. B. Dickinson were the speakers. This was one of a series of meetings which Messrs. Fillmore and Collier have been attending through the Southwest, at Lodi, Ellicottville, Pike, and Angelica. Mr. Collier left this still in session to hasten to the Whig mass meeting on Long Island yesterday. Tompkins, Broome, &c. hold their mass meetings from the 20th onward. Nothing less than five thousand constitutes a quorum for a Whig county meeting nowadays.

N. Y. Tribune.

The citizens of Philadelphia presented to Capt. Joseph Hill, of the City Guards, on Saturday last, through his honor the Mayor, John M. Scott, Esq., a beautiful silver mounted sword, for his patriotic services during the riots in Southwark. On receiving the sword Captain Hill made some excellent remarks in reply to the address of the Mayor.

FROM MARACAIBO.

Captain Waite, of the brig Emma, arrived on Saturday from Maracaibo, whence he sailed July 13th, reports that party spirit ran so high between the blacks and whites, in reference to the approaching election, as to cause fears of revolutionary outbreak. The Government were collecting troops, in readiness for anything that might occur.—N. Y. Express.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

The bark Eugenia, Captain Bischof, from Vera Cruz, the 14th ult. brings us two days later news than we have had, via New Orleans. The paper war between Mr. Green and M. Bocanegra had not come to a close.

An army of 15,000 men were preparing to leave Mexico for Texas, and are expected to reach Matamoros in November next. The Congress had not fixed upon a plan to raise the four millions granted for the expedition, but there was little doubt of their doing so very soon.

As usual at this time of the year, there was little demand for any kind of goods, and prices had not risen in proportion to the increase of duty by the new Tariff. Stocks on hand were small, and both from this cause, and the stability of the present Government, there is every prospect of an improvement by the fall of the year, particularly should the Fair of San Juan take place, which was generally supposed would be the case.

SAND'S SARSAPARILLA.—This invaluable medicine has won its way in public favor until it has become the only acknowledged preparation that can be relied upon for the removal and cure of all diseases originating in an impure state of the blood and other fluids. It is not reduced in medicinal value by the addition of sugar, and is prepared by a peculiar process entirely new. The principle which renders this root so valuable is wholly preserved. This Sarsaparilla is extensively recommended and proved to be highly beneficial for purifying the blood and removing unhealthy humors, eradicating the effects of mercury from the system, clearing the skin, &c. It is also used with the happiest effects in rheumatism and neuralgia.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5. LOCAL NEWS.

THE YOUNG WHIGS OF WASHINGTON Yesterday afternoon erected a handsome Liberty Pole on the open space at the intersection of Louisiana avenue and 7th street, and hoisted at its top the flag of the Union, in honor of our great leader, Harry of the West, where it now gracefully floats. At night, according to announcement, they assembled, with the young Whigs of Georgetown, in great numbers, around the liberty pole at the Club House, with numerous flags and banners, and upwards of fifty transparencies, of all shapes and sizes, with appropriate inscriptions; about eight o'clock a procession was formed, headed by the stars and stripes, and a large transparency bearing the honored names of "Clay and Frelinghuysen;" they then passed down and up Pennsylvania avenue in an orderly manner, giving an occasional shout, and making a novel and beautiful sight. The avenue in the neighborhood of the market was thronged with spectators, both ladies and gentlemen, to witness the procession, and we have yet to hear the first complaint of disorder on their part. About half past 9 o'clock they proceeded towards Georgetown, for the purpose of escorting their brothers home; when they reached the open space opposite the Globe office, they were saluted by a body of men and boys with "three groans for Clay!" the gallant little fellows in the procession immediately responded with three cheers, when they were assailed with stones and other missiles by a parcel of brutes in the shape of men; and for doing that, too, which they have, perhaps, a dozen times encouraged and paid other boys for. It was done, we suppose, under the garb of "Democracy," as well as, assassin-like, under the darkness of night. Such beings are a disgrace to any party; and we hope yet to have the pleasure of making their names known to the public. We are gratified to say that we have heard but one opinion on the subject among both parties; that of condemnation and reproach.

A business meeting of the members of the Clay Club, will be held this evening at the Club House—punctual attendance is desired.

THE WHIGS OF GEORGETOWN, on yesterday afternoon, erected a Liberty Pole on the corner of High and Bridge streets, 130 feet above the ground, on which now floats the flag of the Union, and a streamer bearing on it the names of CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN. A spontaneous meeting of the citizens assembled at the Pole in the evening, and were addressed by HUGH CAPERTON and JOHN T. BANGS, Esqrs., of that town, who did full justice to the cause and to themselves, both in the manner and matter of their addresses. The Glee Club of Georgetown was also on hand, and contributed by their singing greatly to the interest of the occasion.

FIRE.—A stable and carpenter's shop, belonging to Mr. David Oyster, in Georgetown, near the Nunnery, were fired on yesterday morning, by a colored boy belonging to him, and were burnt down before assistance from the firemen could be brought to bear upon them.

GLEE CLUB.—A meeting of the Washington Clay Glee Club will be held on this (Tuesday) evening, at the Club House, at 8 o'clock, to act upon the invitation of the Whigs of Virginia to attend the State Convention at Winchester. A full attendance is requested.

253 Morehead's majority in the counties to hear from.

ALABAMA.

We received no papers from this State by this evening's mail. We were favored, however, with a sight at the Locofoco paper printed in Montgomery, which gives returns from about twelve counties, some of which comprise a part of the Congressional District lately represented by the Hon. D. H. Lewis, in all of which, Mr. Yancey, the Locofoco candidate for Congress falls greatly short of Mr. Lewis's majorities, though probably not enough to defeat his election. It will be recollected that Mr. Lewis's majority was 683.

So far as we have had an opportunity to judge, there has been an increase of Whig majorities in the counties heard from. Probably by our next we shall have returns from a considerable portion of the State if the mail should come through.

COAL! COAL!! COAL!!! THE SUBSCRIBERS have now on hand, and will continue to receive, a superior article of ANTHRACITE COAL from John L. Butler & Co. This coal is mined near Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, and is known in this city as the celebrated Butler Coal, which has been highly recommended by all who have used it, as will be seen by the highly respectable certificates annexed:

I used coal last winter, which I purchased of Messrs. John Pettibone & Co., and it gave me a satisfaction. W. W. SEATON.

PATENT OFFICE, May 31, 1844. Gentlemen: The coal that you furnished for the Patent Office during this last spring proved very excellent; and I used the same kind which was delivered at my house. It proved in both cases highly satisfactory. H. L. ELLSWORTH.

Messrs. J. PETTIBONE & Co., Washington.

OFFICE SECRETARY SENATE, June 1, 1844. Messrs. Pettibone & Co. furnished a small quantity of Coal for the furnaces of the north portion of the Capitol, and it was reported to be of a good quality. They also furnished at a reasonable price for my own private use, during the last winter, several tons of the same kind of Coal, and I was entirely satisfied with it, finding but little dust from its use, and but little else remaining than ashes, there being scarcely any clinker left. W. HICKEY.

WASHINGTON, June 25th, 1844. Gentlemen: Having used your Coal, I can cheerfully recommend it as being of superior quality for easy ignition and culinary purposes. Respectfully, J. PETTIBONE & Co. WM. SKIRVING.

May 31, 1844. I purchased Butler Coal from John Pettibone & Co. last fall and found it a very superior article. W. LENOX.

May 25, 1844. I purchased last year, from Messrs. John Pettibone & Co., what he called the Butler Coal. I never used a finer article of fuel. When I can find the Butler Coal, I shall not inquire for any other kind, for I am persuaded there is none better. JAMES HOBAN.

DANVILLE, PENN. August 2, 1843. I have bought of Messrs. Butler & Co. some hundred tons of their Anthracite Coal, and sold to persons for different uses, and used considerable of it myself. For burning in stoves and grates, I do pronounce it as good Coal as I ever have made use of; and every person to whom I have sold the Coal say they have never used anything they liked better. JOHN C. GRIER.

We can produce many other certificates in accordance with the above. J. PETTIBONE & Co. N. B. Persons who want their Coal low, will please send in their orders immediately, as it will advance in price, owing to the great demand for manufacturing purposes. We can furnish at short notice any quantity of Hickory, Oak, and Pine Wood, at a small advance, for cash.

Orders received by William Harrover, Grate and Stove manufacturer, 7th street, and James Skirving, Stove and Grate manufacturer, 10th street, Washington city.
